

FAKE SAMPLE MEDICAL RECORD - NOT REAL PHI

Provider: City Emergency Department

Patient: Jordan Sample

Claim Type: Workers' Compensation

On January 12, 2023, the patient presented to City Emergency Department after a workplace fall. The patient reported lower back pain and right shoulder pain. X-rays showed no acute fracture. The patient was discharged with ibuprofen and advised to follow up with orthopedics.

FAKE SAMPLE MEDICAL RECORD - NOT REAL PHI

Provider: OrthoCare Associates

On February 3, 2023, the patient was evaluated by OrthoCare Associates for persistent lumbar pain. Dr. Patel diagnosed lumbar strain and recommended physical therapy twice weekly for six weeks. Work restrictions included no lifting over 10 pounds and no prolonged standing.

FAKE SAMPLE MEDICAL RECORD - NOT REAL PHI

Provider: Metro Rehab Clinic

Physical therapy started on February 10, 2023 at Metro Rehab Clinic.

The patient attended therapy visits through March 24, 2023 with gradual improvement.

An MRI performed on April 5, 2023 showed mild L4-L5 disc bulge without nerve compression.

FAKE SAMPLE MEDICAL RECORD - NOT REAL PHI

Provider: OrthoCare Associates

On May 2, 2023, Dr. Patel noted continued pain but improved range of motion.

The patient was released to modified duty and prescribed naproxen.

On June 14, 2023, the patient reported increased pain after returning to work.

FAKE SAMPLE MEDICAL RECORD - NOT REAL PHI

Provider: OrthoCare Associates

On August 1, 2023, the patient reached maximum medical improvement.

Dr. Patel assigned a 5 percent impairment rating and released the patient to full duty.